

THE LAW OF THE BIG MO

Momentum Is a Leader's Best Friend

“Many times Momentum is the only thing that makes the difference between winning and losing.”

Which comes first – momentum or growth?

When you have momentum, small problems don't matter.
Success matters. Winning matters.

Momentum begins with the leader.

“You cannot kindle a fire in any other heart
until it is burning within your own.” ~Eleanor Doan

Are you attracting like-minded people to your team?

Are you modeling enthusiasm?

Issues need to be worked through quickly with ease - they threaten your momentum

A train traveling 55mph hits a wall....and continues....with momentum

A train traveling 55mph hits a wall...and stops. No momentum.

How are you geared for traveling?

What are you doing today to keep the “train” from hitting the wall and stopping?

THE LAW OF THE BIG MO

Momentum Is a Leader's Best Friend

Momentum is the great exaggerator... makes the leader look better than they are.

Young leaders often get less credit than they deserve because have little to no momentum.

One word that can help you enjoy the fruit of your labor to build momentum without letting it destroy you – GRATITUDE.

Momentum helps followers perform better than they are

The initial work is the toughest for the least results!

Momentum is easier to steer than to start

Momentum is a powerful change agent
