

THE LAW OF RESPECT

People naturally Follow Leaders

Stronger Than Themselves

RESPECT HAS TO BE EARNED

People don't follow others by accident. They follow individuals whose leadership they respect.

Who chooses to follow you?

What is your leadership level?

Here's the test: How would your employees, family members, trainees change something they were doing if you asked them to as their coach/leader?

HOW YOU CAN EARN RESPECT

Respect others

Value others

Build others up

Seek the needs and hopes and desires of others first

Are you seeing the pattern here? Want respect? GIVE respect
